My name is Beda, I am a young man from Westminster.
This is a picture of me:

Here, you find the letter I have just written to my friend:

Dear friend,

we have just left Jerusalem. The storming was horrible. So many people died! When I left Westminster, I wanted to free Jerusalem from the infidels. Infidels are (define the term 'infidel':) _____

I wanted to see the Holy Land (define the term 'Holy Land':) _____

I was so curious to see all the places and things I had heard about before (name or draw at least five things or places the young crusader wanted to see:)

This is why I joined this crusade (define the term 'crusade':) _____

I was convinced that this war is a holy one (give at least one reason:) _____

But I have changed my mind by now. This war is not holy (give at least one reason:) _____

This war is bloody and superfluous (überflüssig). Muslims are people like you and me. They are far more advanced than we are in some areas, for example in (give at least two examples:) _____

I hope to see you soon. Take care. Your best friend
